RESET FORM

WHAT IS THIS FORM FOR?

If an owner with Māori land interests is deceased and additional interests have been located after a succession order has already been made, you can use this form to seek a further order under section 118(6) of Te Ture Whenua Māori Act 1993.

This form allows the Court to determine the newly identified interests and vest them in the same successors named in the original succession, without requiring a full new application.

You can complete this form whether or not the deceased left a Will, provided that a previous succession order has already been issued.

HOW TO FILE AND COMPLETE THIS APPLICATION FORM

- (i) This form must be accompanied with the appropriate application fee and may be filed at any office of the Court;
- (ii) Please ensure that all information required on the form is completed;
- (iii) Where tick boxes are provided please ensure you tick all those boxes that apply to your application, unless you are required to select one box, then only select the box that applies;
- (iv) If there is insufficient room on the form to provide all the required information you should continue your application on a separate sheet of paper;
- (v) Additional information – in addition to completing this form, if the application requires you to provide further information you must include all documents, information or evidence you wish the Court to consider; and
- (vi) Refer to the notes to assist applications at the end of the form and comply with the requirements set out in the Checklist at the end of this form.
